The anima and animus are described in Carl Jung's school of analytical psychology as part of his theory of the collective unconscious. Jung described the animus as the unconscious masculine side of a woman, and the anima as the unconscious feminine side of a man, each transcending the personal psyche. Jung's theory states that the anima and animus are the two primary anthropomorphic archetypes of the unconscious mind, as opposed to the theriomorphic and inferior function of the shadow archetypes

First coined by famous psychiatrist Carl Jung, the terms "Anima" and "Animus" refer to the indwelling masculine and feminine energies that we all possess. Specifically, the anima is thought to be the feminine part of a man's soul, and the animus refers to the masculine part of a female's soul. Both the anima and animus are ancient archetypes (or raw forms of energy) that every being ...
